

MALECHA, MARVIN J.*Professor and Dean*North Carolina State University College of Design

Education	Liberal Studies, St. Thomas College, St. Paul, MN
	Bachelor of Architecture, University of Minnesota	1973
	Master of Architecture, Harvard	1974
Teaching and Administrative	NC State, College of Design, Professor and Dean 1994–Present
	Cal Poly Pomona, College of Environmental Design, Prof. and Dean	1982–1994
Experience	Cal Poly Pomona, Department of Architecture	1979–1982
	Associate Professor and Department Chair
	Cal Poly Pomona, Department of Architecture	1977–1979
	Assistant Professor and Assistant Department Chair
	Cal Poly Pomona, Department of Architecture	1976–1979
Teaching Areas	Assistant Professor and Basic Design Coordinator
	Boston Architectural Center, Studio Instructor	1974–1976
	Design Studio
	Design Fundamentals: Design Thinking
	Design Process: The Case Study Method
Visiting Experience	Professional Practice
	Guest lecturer, visiting critic, or guest juror at approximately 30 universities in the United States, Canada, Europe, Japan, Central and South America.
Publications and Papers	Authored and presented approximately 100 papers for professional, national and international conferences.
	The Nests of Pegasus	2006
	The Learning Organization	2005
	Reconfiguration	2002
	Design in Life	2001
	Foundations	1997
	The New Administrators Handbook with Robert Greenstreet	1995-2005
	The Junior Faculty Handbook with Robert Greenstreet	1994-2005
	The Pomona Method	1994
	Angels in the Architecture: a Children's Book	1993
	The Form of Performance	1991
	The Right of Inquiry	1991
	The Design Studio	1987
	The Study of Design	1985
	The Fabric of Architecture	1982
	The Total Energy House	1979
Scholarship	Investigations in Design Thinking	1994-Present
	The Practice Academy: the development of a new architectural curriculum for advanced studies	2003-Present
	Investigations into the relationship between liturgy and architectural form in the modern church	1994–Present
	Planning for the Center for Regenerative Studies at Cal Poly Pomona	1988-1994
	The evolution of the Classical and Hellenistic theater	1989–1991
	Planning for The Institute for Environmental Studies for the Italian National Government	1988–1990
	Environmental Studies, Urban Design and Building Design in Lombardy Italy	1985–1992
	The Total Energy Community	1977–1985
	The Total Energy House (General Dynamics Corp.)	1977–1979
	Investigation into the implications of the California State Energy Code on the form of buildings	1979–1980
Project Feedback, Housing for the Elderly Post-Occupancy Assessment	1974–1975

Professional Experience	Marvin J. Malecha, FAIA, Architect	1979–Present
	Association with Dixon-Weinstein Architects, Chapel Hill, NC	2006–Present
	Consultant to the Office of the Campus Architect for University of California Riverside	1987–1994
	Association with James Pulliam and Associates, Los Angeles	1985–1994
	Association with Patrick Sullivan Architects, Claremont, CA including justice and religious projects	1984–1994
	Hugh Stubbins and Associates, Cambridge, MA	1973–1976
	Graphics Consulting to multiple offices	1972–1977
	Wallace and Mundt Architects, Edina, MN	1969–1973
Honors	First Vice President/President-Elect of AIA	2008–2009
	Sigma Xi, the scientific research society	2006
	Jackson Rigney Award for International Service, NCSU	2006
	Recognized by Design Intelligence Magazine as a leading Architectural Educator	2005, 2006
	Bene Meruti Medal for service to Ion Mincu University, Bucharest, Romania	2005
	AIA/ACSA Topaz Laureate	2003
	ACSA Distinguished Professor	2002
	University Of Minnesota Distinguished Alumni Achievement Award	1999
	Elected an Honorary Member of the European Assn. of Architectural Educators	1998
	AIA Pasadena Chapter Design Award	1995
	AIA California Council Excellence in Education Award	1994
	Elected to the AIA College of Fellows	1992
	AIA Los Angeles Chapter Citation for Service to the Profession	1987
	AIA Los Angeles Chapter Citation for Drawings	1983
	Rotch Scholar	1980
	Recognition in six design competitions
	Listed in Who's Who in the World since	1987
	Listed in Outstanding Young Men in America	1983
Honorary Society Memberships	Golden Key International Honor Society
	Sigma Iota Rho International Studies Fraternity
	Alpha Rho Chi Professional Fraternity
	Phi Kappa Phi Honor Society.
Service	Served on approximately 30 design awards juries at the local, state and national levels.
	Served on 25 national accreditation teams from the NAAB and LAAB, including 17 as Chair.
	Board Member, American Institute of Architects	2004–Present
	Board Member AIA NC	1994–Present
	Member, Raleigh Contemporary Art Museum Board	1995–2005
	Member, Catholic Diocese of Raleigh	1994–Present
	Building and Real-Estate Commission Chair, AIA Education Committee	1995
	Board Member, National Architectural Accreditation Board, NAAB	1991–1994
	Vice-Chair, AIA/ACSA Research Council	1990–1993
	President, Association of Collegiate Schools of Architecture	1989–1990
	President, California Council of Architectural Educators.	1988
	Board Member, AIA Health Facilities Research Planning Board	1985–1988
	Board Member AIA LA
Chaired approximately 20 national and international meetings for the ACSA, AIA and EAAE.
Memberships	American Institute of Architects
	American Society of Landscape Architects
	American Institute of Graphic Artists
Registration	Architect: California-C9804, North Carolina-7445, NCARB Certificate-46969	